

Prof. Elizabeta Vatchkova
International University College, Sofia (Bulgaria)
Doctor of economic sciences
President of International Business School
Transbusiness-E

Elizabeta Vatchkova has a PhD in Economics and is Professor of Human Resource Management at International University College in Sofia where she teaches Strategic Management. She also delivers lectures on Human Resource Management and Organizational Behaviour at University of Forestry.

She has conducted extensive research in the field as organizer and sponsor of the longitudinal sociological survey on Human Resource Management in Bulgaria (1996, 1999, 2003, and 2008) and has participated in numerous international conferences as a representative of Bulgaria in CRANET. Professor Vatchkova has significant consulting experience as founder and owner of the International Business School Transbusiness-E and is a Founding member and former Vice President (2000–2003) of the Bulgarian Human Resource Management and Development Association (BHRMDA). In 2007 she was awarded the Special award for promoting and development of human resource management by BHRMDA.

Elizabeta has authored and co-authored of more than 100 publications in Bulgaria and abroad, among which:

Managing human resources in Bulgaria (2009). In the Book "Managing Human Resources in Central and Eastern Europe. Edited by M. Morley, N. Heraty, S. Mihailova. Routledge London and New York.

Human Resource Management – the Bulgarian and the International Experience, (2007) IBS Transbusiness-E, Sofia.

Human Resource Management for the forestry industry – an interactive web-based course and CD-ROM (2007). Institute of Forestry, Centre for encouragement of entrepreneurship, Sofia.

Bulgaria and Czech Republic: Countries in transition (2004). In the Cranet Book Human Resource Management in Europe: Evidence of Convergence? Butterworth-Heinemann, Oxford

Handbook on Effective Human Resource Management. (2004). RAABE, Sofia.

Human Resource Management in Bulgaria – Hot Problems of the Transition to Market Economy (2000). In the Book New Challenges for European Human Resource Management, Macmillan Press Ltd, UK.

Human Resource Management: European Comparative Researches (1998), University Press "Stopanstvo", Sofia.

Elizabeta Vatchkova

STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT STUDENT HANDBOOK

International University College
Sofia, 2010